

Kevin Wild

Indianapolis, Indiana

- Staff Attorney & ALJ, Indiana Family and Social Services Administration

Travel: Statewide

Areas of Particular Interest:

- Employment
- Civil Rights
- Administrative
- Wrongful Discharge
- Sexual Harassment
- Discrimination

Additional Information:

A graduate of Wabash College and Indiana University McKinney School of Law, Kevin Wild has been a licensed attorney in good standing with the Indiana Supreme Court since 1995. He began service with State government in 1997 and has acted in an Administrative Law Judge capacity since 1999. Kevin has adjudicated over 420 administrative cases as ALJ, including termination of provider agreements, overpayment determinations, eligibility and level of care determinations, waiver denial appeals, township interim assistance appeals, and others. He has also acted as the Ultimate Authority's Designee. In addition to being an ALJ, Kevin litigates and advises agency clients on issues related to employee discipline and performance, EEOC matters, Medicaid provider rate and audit appeal issues, agency rulemaking, aging and in-home services, and services for individuals with disabilities. Kevin is also active in his church and has served as a member on various non-profit boards.